Iconic Mid-Century Home Designed by Adrian Pearsall Lists for $3.2 Million in Forty Fort, PA

In collaboration with Mid-Century Homes of Boise, Idaho, and Realty World Rubbico Real Estate of Plains, Pennsylvania

Forty Fort, PA – June 12, 2023 – Mid-Century Homes, a premier real estate agency specializing in mid-century properties, is thrilled to announce the listing of the historic family home of renowned American furniture designer Adrian Pearsall in Forty Fort, Pennsylvania. This unique property presents an extraordinary once in a lifetime opportunity for mid-century enthusiasts and architectural aficionados to own an outright stunning property and a rare piece of mid-century history.

Adrian Pearsall, celebrated for his exceptional contributions to mid-century furniture design, created this architectural gem as his family residence in the picturesque town of Forty Fort. The home, meticulously maintained and preserved, stands as a testament to Pearsall's innovative design ethos and artistic vision. It's likely that many of the famed furniture pieces were birthed in Pearsall's imagination while creatively inspired from this mid-century oasis.

Key features of “The House That Pearsall Built” include:

- Thoughtfully crafted open floor plan, blending indoor and outdoor spaces seamlessly
- Expansive windows and skylights allowing abundant natural light and panoramic views of the surrounding landscape
- Authentic mid-century features including giant walls of stone and dark walnut
- Stunning iconic fireplaces, integrating warmth and elegance into the living spaces
- Sprawling tranquil grounds with mature trees and landscape
- 14 original Pearsall freestanding furniture pieces (2 sofas, 7 chairs, 4 tables, 1 floor lamp) plus casegoods, wall units, buffets, hutches, bookshelves and bar custom-built by Pearsall specifically for this home (all included in the sale of this property)
- Pool Table, Shuffleboard
- Full size tennis court
- Swimming Pool

Mid-Century Homes of Boise, Idaho, known for their expertise in mid-century architecture, has partnered with the stewards of this turnkey property. With their extensive knowledge and understanding, Mid-Century Homes ensures that this property receives the attention it deserves.

Jed Splittgerber of Mid-Century Homes ponders, “I can only imagine this home at the time it was built, it was a dream for Adrian Pearsall and he was at the peak of his career. He had his laboratory, he was meeting people, he was dreaming of materials, he was looking around his own space and seeing how he could utilize those. It makes this home so important because it is the rarest work of Adrian Pearsall.”

Buyers and design enthusiasts alike will appreciate the historical significance and design integrity of the Adrian Pearsall Family Home. With its immaculate condition and unparalleled architectural beauty, this residence represents an extraordinary opportunity to own a true mid-century masterpiece.

Current homeowner and steward of the Pearsall House, Toni Crevo, reflects on her time living in the home, "I realized that having all of this glass in your home, what a difference it makes to be connected with nature. No matter where you are in the house you have a beautiful view, even if you are looking at the walls — they're wood, they're stone, and they're all original. It's just a beautiful place to live, it's quiet, it's tranquil, and you could be anywhere in the world when you're here."
